The Adams County commissioners Thursday made some final arrangements for the county home, decided to add a steel grille to rear windows at the jail -and after about a three-hour work on the budgets for the county and institution district for 1961 decided to make their final budget decisions next Wednesday.

Much of the day was spent at the county home where they met with the architects and contractors for a semifinal inspection to make required changes before the workmen finish operations. The new home is expected to be completed in April.

The tour of the new structure showed work progressing "nicely," the commissioners said. PLAN FINAL CHECKUP

930 MIGRANTS HERE

The council adopted a boardsponsored recommendation that the county council this year provide chaplaincy service for migrants this summer, attempt to secure a place and volunteer help for a day car center for migrants' children and that a committee be appointed to study the possibility of building or buying a permanent center in this county for migrant work.

Such a center, it was explained, would be used as quarters for the day care center as well as providing facilities for regular recreational and religious activities in addition to health and hygiene training.

The council was told by the Rev. Maynard Barnhart, Arendtsville, that the county had 930 migrant workers last year, the second highest number for any county_in the state and the highest concentration of migrants anywhere in Pennsylvania. "They legislators, the Post Office Dewere our neighbors for four to five months," he said.

Its owner was of the Hotel Eberhart. It took three hours to drive it here from Harrisburg, where it was purchased, and it arrived in a cloud of dust and aura of new paint and gasoline furnes.

Automobiles were not strange to Gettysburgians, but their first knowledge of them was gained, like much else, from tourists. The Scorning all labor, which day that young Eberhart (he was then 19 years old) drove down Chambersburg street after the epic making run from the state capital, a goodly segment of the He waited for the chance to lead, local citizenry was on hand in front of the Eagle hotel to greet him and his Cadillac.

Pardon Board Rejects Grab's Petition Today: The state Board of Pardons announced today it And has refused the plea of Eugene Grab Sr., Harrisburg street, for a "pardon" on a charge brought against him here last February That men had risen to wealth and after a disturbance at the Knouse Corporation plant at Peach Glen where Grab formerly was an official.

In his appeal to the Pardon Board, he asked it to "clear his record" which, it was claimed, had been "excellent" until his court experience here last year. Grab's attorney told the state board that Grab had "committed no crime." He was charged by state police with a violation of February 15—New moon. the Uniform Firearms Act.

NEW NEIGHI

When Betty Marlowe moved into our neighborhood we invited her to join the garden club and the baby sitters' club and the civic association, but it never occurred to any of us to ask her if she'd like to go to church.

Then, one Saturday, she phoned me. "My husband is often out of town on Sundays and I don't have the car when he's away," she explained. "Would you and Bill mind if I went to church with you?"

Mind! We were delighted—but I was also a little ashamed. And I wondered how many others there were in our neighborhood who would like to go to our church, if they were given the encouragement of an invitation.

From now on, I'm not waiting to be asked. I'm asking first!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
